1. This Protocol confirms the transfer to the Partner of FIXON products, products covered by the starting warehouse, products covered by storage support, exhibition elements, test tools, marketing materials or other elements indicated in the transfer table.

2. The protocol is used to determine the type, quantity, value, status and status of the items transferred to the Partner, as well as to determine the Partner's liability for the products and materials that remain owned Suppliers until their sale, return, settlement or other event indicated in the FIXON Partner Programme.

3. Quantitative and valuable data can be supplemented by the Catalogue Pricelist FIXON, Product Status, Product Lists Available in the Start Magazine, Lists of Products Covered by Storage Support or other documents provided to the Partner under the Programme.

1. The Partner takes note that products, test tools, exposure elements and materials indicated in this Protocol may remain owned Suppliers until their sale, return, settlement or other event provided for in the FIXON Partner Programme or related documents.

- 2. The Partner shall be responsible for the proper storage, security, use and recording of the products and materials transferred from the moment of receipt to the time of sale, refund, settlement or other termination of liability.
- 3. The normal use of test or exposure tools resulting from their proper use shall not constitute the basis for the Partner's burden, unless programme documents or individual arrangements provide otherwise.
- 4. The damage, loss, destruction or unjustified lack of product or item transferred to the Partner for reasons attributable to the Partner may be settled in accordance with the FIXON Partner Programme, the Catalogue Pricelist or the relevant billing document.

The Partner should raise reservations regarding the quantity, type, value, technical condition, deficiencies, damage or non-conformity of the products and materials transferred at the time of the signature of the Protocol, and if the finding of non-compliance at the time of receipt was not possible, no later than 7 days from the date of delivery or transmission of the document. The absence of reservations within that time limit shall mean the adoption of the Protocol for information and application to the extent covered by the transfer. In the event of a statement of objections, the Parties shall clarify the discrepancies and prepare a final agreed version of the document which requires the approval of both Parties in the form of personal signatures or electronic signatures accepted by the Parties, unless the Parties expressly agree otherwise in document correspondence.

Comments to be transmitted:

Annexes to the Protocol: Catalogue Price list of FIXONs, statuses of FIXON products, list of products available in the Start Magazine, list of products covered by Storage Support, photo documentation, release document, transport document or other documents indicated by the Parties.
